Overview

The First Japan-Taiwan Joint Conference on Differential Geometry & the 8th TIMS-OCAMI-WASEDA Joint International Workshop on Differential Geometry and Geometric Analysis

About the Japan Taiwan Joint Conference on Differential Geometry : The purpose of the Japan Taiwan Joint Conference on Differential Geometry is to foster discussions and interactions between the differential geometry communities of Japan and Taiwan. It will be held every two years. The first conference will be held at Waseda University, Japan, December 13th-17th 2016 (Tuesday-Saturday).

About the TIMS-OCAMI-WASEDA Joint International Workshop: This workshop is organized as a project under the agreement of academic cooperation between TIMS and OCAMI. It is also supported by Waseda University. It was initiated to develop collaboration on Differential Geometry and Geometric Analysis between Taiwan and Japan.

Speakers:

Chih-Wei Chen, National Taiwan University, Taiwan
Hajime Fujita, Japan Women's University, Japan
Keizo Hasegawa, Niigata University, Japan
Kota Hattori, Keio University, Japan
Naoyuki Koike, Tokyo University of Science, Japan
Kwok-Kun Kwong, National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan
Kuo-Wei Lee, National Taiwan University, Taiwan
Chun-Chi Lin, National Taiwan Normal University, Taiwan
Chih-Chung Liu, National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan
Ziming Ma, National Taiwan University, Taiwan
Shinichiro Matsuo, Nagoya University, Japan
Akane Nakamura, Josai University, Japan
Shin-ichi Ohta, Kyoto University, Japan
Hajime Ono, Saitama University, Japan
Takashi Sakai, Tokyo Metropolitan University, Japan
Chung-Jue Sung, National Tsing Hua University, Taiwan
Asuka Takatsu, Tokyo Metropolitan University, Japan
Kazunaga Tanaka, Waseda University, Japan
Chung-Jun Tsai, National Taiwan University, Taiwan
Mu-Tao Wang, Columbia University, USA
Chin-Tung Wu, National Pingtung University, Taiwan

Mentoring Program: This conference is partially supported by the Top Global University Project at Waseda University, which aims to produce talented doctoral course students and post doctoral researchers with international and cross-cultural backgrounds. In order to enhance international and multi-disciplinary education, graduate student participants from Taiwan will be assigned mentors from Japan in their research area, and graduate student participants from Japan will have the opportunity to be assigned mentors from Taiwan.

Scientific Committee

Akito Futaki, The University of Tokyo, Japan

Yoshinobu Kamishima, Josai University, Japan

Yng-Ing Lee, National Taiwan University, Taiwan

Chang-Shou Lin, National Taiwan University, Taiwan

Organizing Committee

Martin A. Guest, Waseda University, Japan

Miyuki Koiso, Institute of Mathematics for Industry, Kyushu University, Japan

Yoshihiro Ohnita, Osaka City University, Japan & Osaka City University Advanced Mathematical Institute, Japan

Sumio Yamada, Gakushuin University, Japan

Shu-Cheng Chang, National Taiwan University, Taiwan

River Chiang, National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan

Nan-Kuo Ho, National Tsing Hua University, Taiwan

Mao-Pei Tsui, National Taiwan University, Taiwan
